Think slavery ended in 1865?

Think again.

Over 27 million people live in slavery today – more than any other time in human history including over 200,000 in the U.S.

Slaves grow our food, weave our carpets, make our clothing, landscape our yards, change the sheets in our hotel rooms, cook our meals in restaurants, paint our nails in the salon, make the soccer balls our children play with, and more.

Is that ok with you?

Human trafficking is the new modern-day slavery.

Together, we can end this.
